Part 4. Agreement

By signing this Agreement, Employee agrees to modify his/her salary as indicated above and Employer agrees to contribute this amount on Employee's behalf into the 403(b) annuity(ies) or custodial account(s) selected by Employee. It is intended that the requirements of all applicable state and federal tax rules and regulations (Applicable Law) will be met. The Employee understands and agrees that this Agreement:

1. Is legally binding and irrevocable with respect to amounts paid or available while it is in effect;
2. May be terminated at any time for amounts not yet paid or available, and that a termination request is permanent and remains in effect until a new salary reduction agreement is submitted;
3. Is effective only for amounts not yet earned or made available in accordance with the Employer's administrative procedures.

Employee further agrees that:

He/she is responsible for determining that his/her salary reduction amount does not exceed the limits of the Applicable Law;

He/she is responsible for the accuracy of the information provided by Employee, which is used in determining Employee's maximum annual contribution limit; and

Employer has no liability for any losses suffered by Employee that result from his/her participation in the 403(b) program.

Employee acknowledges that Employer has made no representation to Employee regarding the advisability, appropriateness or tax consequences of the purchase of the 403(b) program. Nothing herein shall affect the terms of employment between Employer and Employee.

This Agreement supersedes all prior salary reduction agreements and shall automatically terminate if your employment with the Employer is terminated.

Note: Your employer's administrative policies will determine when 403(b) salary reduction instructions are implemented.

Important Information

1. Employer does not choose the annuity contract(s) or custodial accounts in which contributions are invested.
2. Employees are responsible for setting up and signing the legal documents to establish the annuity contract or custodial account. However, in certain group annuity contracts, Employers may be required to establish the contract.
3. In order to receive the expected tax results, Employees are responsible for investing in annuity contracts or custodial accounts that meet the requirements of Section 403(b) in the Internal Revenue Code.
4. Employees are responsible for naming a death benefit under the 403(b) program. This is normally done at the time the annuity contract or custodial account is established. Beneficiary designations should be reviewed periodically.
5. Employees are responsible for all distributions and any other transactions with their service provider. All rights under the annuity contracts or custodial accounts are enforceable solely by the Employee, Employee beneficiary, or Employee's authorized representative. Employee must work directly with the service provider to transfer contract(s) or custodial account(s) to another service provider, begin distributions, make loans, or otherwise access 403(b) program assets.
6. Employees are responsible for determining that salary reductions do not exceed the allowable contribution limits under Applicable Law. References herein to elective deferral limits are based on the 2010 limit. Limits should be checked each year for the scheduled increases.

If selected in Part 2 above, you are declaring that you are eligible for one or both of the catch up elections as indicated. And you are accepting full responsibility for the amount you have elected to have withheld from your salary and contributed to a 403(b) arrangement.
